

FLINT GLASS WORKERS

ANNUAL NATIONAL CONVENTION TO BEGIN AT MUNICE TO-DAY.

Most of the 204 Delegates and Many Members in Attendance—Big Union Labor Demonstration.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MUNICE, Ind., July 9.—On the eve of the National Flint Glass Workers' annual convention there are 137 of the 204 delegates registered at headquarters. William S. Smith, president and treasurer, of Pittsburg, Vice President Thomas E. Smart of Altoona, Ill., Secretary John Kuentzler of Pittsburg and his assistant, William Clair of Pittsburg and National Organizer Thomas Rowe of Toledo are here. There are a number of other executive officers present and many of the eight thousand members will also attend the sessions which will begin to-morrow with a big union labor demonstration. Thirty odd labor societies in Munice will march, with hundreds coming from neighboring towns on excursions to take part in the parade and hear the addresses at Heskin Park in the afternoon. The committee to-night is assured that "Golden Rule" Jones of Toledo, President Gompers of Pittsburg, Judge Tarvin of Kentucky and possibly Governor Mount will address the meeting. The city is in gay attire, decorated for the occasion, and during the meeting several banquets and a picnic will take place.

To-night there was a meeting of the delegates and other flint-glass workers and members of the green-glass workers and green-glass pressers at Union Labor Hall. It was the first discussion of the one topic to be considered at the convention, the matter of amalgamating the three organizations. The prospects are that the vote amalgamation will carry through with a whirl. The green workers' convention in Atlantic City this week will discuss the same proposition. The delegates will meet together nearly twenty thousand glass workers, Cincinnati and Elwood are candidates for the next meeting. The organization has at the present time about 6,000 members, the largest number in its history. The requirements are that every local throughout the country be compelled to send the delegates to the yearly convention, and if this delegate fails to be present at the meeting he is compelled to pay a fine of $10. This measure is a full representation. The meetings will be held morning and afternoon of each day in the courthouse. The official headquarters are at the Hotel Kirby.

THE STATE'S JURIST NURSERY.

Wayne County Claims the Honor of Having Had the Most Distinguished Lawyers.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
RICHMOND, Ind., July 9.—The death of George W. Julian, who was one of Wayne county's most distinguished sons, has called to mind the fact that perhaps no county in the State has been more ably represented from a legal standpoint than this. The list of the Wayne county bar has contained the names of some of the best-known men of the State. Mr. Julian being one of the most conspicuous. Centerville was the county seat previous to Richmond and up to 1872, and it was at that point that most of the distinguished lawyers had their offices. It is supposed to have been the first lawyer who settled there. He remained until about 1822, when he removed to Indianapolis and served as circuit judge until 1833. Among the first lawyers admitted to practice were Stephen C. Stephens, 1815; Miles C. Eggleston, Addison Smith, James Rariden and D. J. Caswell, 1818; James Gilmore, Cyrus Finch, Stephen Whitcomb and O. H. Smith, 1820; Levi Rhoads, 1822; David Dyer, 1820; and Abraham, Elliott and Martin M. Ray, 1822. Mr. Finch was associated with Stephen Smith in establishing the Western Times. Rariden served in both branches of the State Legislature and also was elected to Congress. He also figured conspicuously in the state constitutional convention of 1850. John S. Newman was admitted to the bar in 1825. He was a member of the constitutional convention of 1850 and served five years as president of the B. Ray, Governor of Indiana from 1853 to 1857, lived in Centerville from 1825 to 1851, never residing in Wayne county, practiced at the bar in Centerville, and was a legislator, speaker of the House and elected to Congress.

Hon. Samuel E. Perkins, late judge of the Supreme Court, first came into prominence as a Wayne county lawyer. He was admitted to the bar in 1825. In 1827 Jacob B. Julian, a brother of George W. Julian, two years junior, was admitted to the bar at Centerville in 1833. He served as prosecutor, member of the State Legislature, president of the Wayne Circuit Court, and judge of the Marion Circuit Court. Among others whose names are more or less known throughout the State are: John B. Ray, Governor of Indiana from 1853 to 1857, lived in Centerville from 1825 to 1851, never residing in Wayne county, practiced at the bar in Centerville, and was a legislator, speaker of the House and elected to Congress.

REPLY TO OPERATORS.

Mr. Ditcher Says They Are Not Expected to Surrender Mine's Gates.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 9.—National Committee man Fred Ditcher, of the United Mine Workers of America, in an open letter to the Express, denies the statement made by the southern Indiana coal operators that the operators are expected by the miners to pay a 25-cent levy on their earnings for support of the miners' union. After outlining the object and workings of the union, he says: "The miners are not expected to surrender the mine's gates to the operators who are struggling for a better condition of affairs. The miners want to see the operators who are rightfully his, but it will fight to the last ditch for what it considers the rights of the miners. The southern Indiana mining situation is unchanged."

Washington Irving Howard Dead.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
SPENCER, Ind., July 9.—Washington Irving Howard died at his home in this city yesterday morning of heart failure, aged sixty-seven years. Mr. Howard was a native of Vermont and resided in Ansonia, Ind. in the fifties, engaging in the practice of law. He has been in the newspaper business since 1854, having been sent to publish the Rochester, Tribune and Owen County Journal. He was a charter member of the Democratic Club and a member of the Democratic Club. He held several public positions, among them treasurer of Steuben county, joint senator from Steuben and De Kalb counties in 1873-75, and was the first Republican representative from Fulton county, having been elected in 1886.

Eloped with a Barber.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
WARSAW, Ind., July 9.—Mrs. C. E. Oliver, wife of a prominent business man of this place, yesterday eloped with Harry Duffy, a barber who moved here recently from Anderson. Both are married and have families. Mrs. Oliver has two little children, aged three and five years. Duffy left for Anderson a few days ago and Mrs. Oliver followed him there yesterday. Mr. E. Oliver, husband of the woman, owned a large flouring mill in this city, but sold out a few days ago and accepted a position as traveling salesman. It was during his absence on the road that the attachment between Duffy and Mrs. Oliver sprang up.

The Harlan to Meet in Iowa.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
RICHMOND, Ind., July 9.—Nathan Harlan, of Bethel, this county, president of the Association of Harlans, has issued a call for the ninth national reunion, to be held at Mount Pleasant, Ia., on Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 16 and 17. All persons in the United States bearing the name of Harlan or Harland, or who trace their descent from the name, are invited. The family dates back to George and Michael Harlan, who came to America from England in 1807 and settled in Pennsylvania.

Body Found in the Canal.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
PORT WORTH, Ind., July 9.—The body of Simon Bradstreet was found early Sunday morning floating in the basin of the canal near the electric light power house. He had been missing since Thursday morning. It is believed he committed suicide because he had been drinking and was despondent. Years ago he was a well-known real estate dealer but he drank up all his money and property.

Suicide of a Woman.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
SALT LAKE, Ind., July 9.—Mrs. Della Holler, wife of F. M. Holler, of this place, committed suicide by taking strychnine early this morning. There is no known cause for the act. Before she died she said she was tired of life and if she was brought through this time she would try again. She leaves a husband and three small children.
